

Learn about vital policy issues and develop your leadership skills
Network with policy-curious West Virginians and policy leaders
Prepare for your future in a policy-related field

SUMMER POLICY INSTITUTE

Connecting WV's Future Leaders to Policy Work & Networks

#WVSPi2023

<https://bit.ly/2023SPI>

WHO

Traditional and non-traditional undergraduate students, graduate students, and policy-curious West Virginians of all ages, including highly qualified high school students.

WHEN

July 28-30, 2023. There will be full days of live content and team work from July 28 through July 30, culminating with the policy pitch competition on the final day. SPI attendees participate in interactive sessions where they learn the ins and outs of policy change through a research and data lens, as well as crucial skills rooted in community engagement and grassroots mobilization. Leading up to the policy pitch competition, teams will develop their policy proposals with support from our coaches and issue area experts, as well as have the opportunity to practice their policy pitches before they present to our judges.

WHERE

Fairmont State University. On-campus meals and lodging will be provided.

APPLY

To complete an application, please visit <https://bit.ly/2023SPI>. For more information, contact our team at summerpolicyinstitute@gmail.com. There is no cost to attend. Please note, it is expected that participants attend all SPI sessions during the three-day convening. Applications are due by May 1, 2023.

*Apply
Today!*

